Davy's Journey

Clip 2: Davy Boards a Boat

DAVY: Can you imagine how afraid the kids would be? Some of them didn't have their Mum and Dads with them to supervise them.

JODI: Like you.

DAVY: Like me. My journey.

JODI: You were without your parents.

DAVY: So that is why this, this...

JODI: Bring back memories?

DAVY: Yeah, it does. This really... scary. Just going through the whole process again. I'm reliving my worst nightmare. I'm really scared you know being on this boat. Really scared.

JODI: Well, we're just going in to the darkness. We don't know where we are.

DAVY: This is what it was like for an 8 year old. No Mum, no Dad, on me own.

DAVY: And a lot of people from my background, the Vietnamese, some of them...

JODI: Didn't make it.

DAVY: They didn't make it. I tried to be strong for the last 20 years. This is one of my worst life experience. I tried to block it out. It's been twenty years since I cried like this. That's why I'm so against people smugglers. I'm so against what they're doing. It's so wrong. They're gambling with peoples' lives. I don't know how they can live with themselves.

NARRATOR: JUST ONE BOAT HAS REACHED AUSTRALIAN SHORES SINCE THE 'STOP THE BOATS' POLICY WAS INTRODUCED.

NARRATOR: FIFTEEN ASYLUM SEEKER BOATS HAVE BEEN TURNED BACK BY AUSTRALIAN AUTHORITIES AND MANY MORE BY INDONESIA, SRI LANKA AND MALAYSIA.

ANDREW: What now really starts to hit me is they do this and then they get towed back.

NICOLE: Yes, yeah. Exactly. And what happens on the tow back.

ANDREW: I can't handle that as a response.

NARRATOR: NOW, THE SIX PARTICIPANTS ARE ABOUT TO BE TURNED BACK THEMSELVES.

DAVID CORLETT: You have been apprehended. Reduce your speed and move to the back of the boat.

ALL: Whoa. What the hell?

DAVID CORLETT: You have been apprehended.

DAVY: Oh st. You're kidding me. Who's in there?

KIM: Can't see any guns at this stage.
