

Media Release

Tuesday 13 May

Alone Australia Season 3: The Reunion

As the latest season nears its end, SBS's hit series brings full cast together for reunion show hosted by SBS's Kumi Taguchi

Stream Alone Australia: The Reunion after the final two episodes on SBS On Demand on Wednesday 4 June

Images here

Trailer here

- With over 6000 hours of footage filmed, The Reunion promises more unforeseen footage than ever before
- A first-look at the record-breaking number and range of catches
- Detailed dives into ten epic shelters
- All the discoveries, ingenuity, bushcrafted gizmos & gadgets viewers never got to see
- More unseen wonders of wildlife
- Raw reveals of the highs and lows and the physical and mental tolls experienced by the season's cast
- Find out what it was like to reintegrate back into life after Alone Australia

SBS's standout hit series, Alone Australia Season 3 will wrap on 4 June with a special one-hour reunion episode. With just four episodes and the final four participants remaining, Alone Australia Season 3: The Reunion will stream exclusively on SBS on Demand, following the nail-biting double episode finale of the series.

Hosted by SBS's Kumi Taguchi (Insight), a self-confessed fan, the special one-hour program, will bring together the entire cast for the first time since they were dropped in the remote wilds of the West Coast Ranges of Tasmania/ lutruwita, completely isolated, stripped of modern possessions, contact and comforts, to self-document their experience.

With over 6000 hours of footage filmed, The Reunion will include a plethora of exclusive offerings that fans will relish. Joining Ben, Ceilidh, Corinne, Eva, Karla, Matt, Muzza, Shay, Tom and Yonke, Kumi will unveil more never-been-seen footage than ever before. This will include: a first-look at the record-breaking number and range of catches; detailed dives into ten epic shelters; all the discoveries, ingenuity, bush crafted gizmos and gadgets viewers never got to see; more unseen wonders of wildlife; raw reveals of the highs and lows and the physical and mental tolls experienced by the season's cast; as well as finding out what it was like to reintegrate back into life after Alone Australia.

Alone Australia is the ultimate test of endurance, with only three ways to exit: voluntary tap out, medical extraction or as the winner. With no camera crew, each participant must document their own survival through a brutal winter as they fight to stay warm, dry, fed and alive for as long as they can.

The final two episodes of Alone Australia will premiere on Wednesday 4 June at 7.30pm and 8.30pm on SBS and SBS On Demand and culminate at 9.30pm with Alone Australia: The Reunion at 9.30pm exclusively on SBS On Demand, also airing on SBS on Thursday 11 June at 7.30pm.

SBS Head of Unscripted Joseph Maxwell said: "Australian audiences have been captivated by this season's remarkable cast. Now they gather to reveal what that experience meant to them, giving exclusive insights into the reality of what it takes to survive on Alone Australia."

ITV Studios Australia's Chief Content Officer, Beth Hart, said: "The Alone Australia Season 3 Reunion is more than just a look back—with the cast reunited for the first time since finishing Alone, it's a powerful unpacking of their unique experiences under extreme pressure, and their subsequent recoveries. This season's remarkable, never-before-seen footage adds even more depth to their extraordinary journeys."

Alone Australia is an A+E Media Group format and ITV Studios Australia production for SBS.

Alone Australia* continues Wednesdays with the final two episodes premiering Wednesday 4 June at 7.30pm and 8.30pm, exclusively on SBS and SBS On Demand.

Alone Australia: The Reunion* premieres on Wednesday 4 June at 9.30pm on SBS On Demand and Wednesday 11 June at 7.30pm on SBS.

For more information, please contact:

Milly Palmer | milly.palmer@sbs.com.au | 0406 348 248