

Call it Deltavision, Australia's through to the Grand Final of this year's Eurovision Song Contest!

Don't miss our golden girl, Sunday 17 May LIVE at 5:00am
AEST and 7:30pm in prime-time on SBS and SBS On Demand

Interviews available

Images here

Semi-Final 2 broadcast quality footage here

Semi-Final 2 images here

15 May 2026

Overnight in Vienna, Austria, Australia's Delta Goodrem officially secured her place in the Grand Final of the Eurovision Song Contest 2026. Her breathtaking Semi-Final 2 performance of Eclipse captivated audiences inside the Wiener Stadthalle and viewers around the world. Don't miss Delta's spellbinding performance on Sunday 17 May LIVE at 5:00am AEST and in prime time at 7:30pm AEST on SBS and SBS On Demand.

Blending cinematic staging, celestial imagery and couture artistry, Delta's performance delivered one of the most visually striking and emotionally charged moments of this year's competition — cementing Eclipse as a standout Grand Final contender.

Delta Goodrem said: "Tonight feels like pure magic. To stand on that stage, share our hearts, and now know we're heading to the Grand Final of Eurovision is something I'll never forget. It's an absolute honour to represent Australia on the Eurovision stage. Thank you for every vote, every message, and every bit of love."

SBS Head of Entertainment/Head of Australian Delegation Emily Griggs said: "What a performance - we all felt so proud watching Delta rise to the occasion. The crowd response was incredible, the applause inside the venue capturing how much the performance connected with everyone."

Australia's Creative Director for Vienna, Paul Clarke said: "Delta makes this performance look effortless, but she has worked hard for this. Representing Australia is everything to her. Expect another level in the Grand Final."

A celestial spectacle of light, shadow and transformation

Having written songs for Celine Dion and worked alongside Olivia Newton-John, Delta brought her signature vocals and commanding live presence to the Eurovision stage with Eclipse.

Realised by staging directors and producers Dan Shipton and Ross Nicholson of Black Skull Creative, the performance transformed the stage into a cinematic world of light and shadow, evolving from a moonlit dreamscape into a radiant gold sunscape reflecting the song's themes of transformation and strength.

Delta wore a custom couture creation by Velani By Nicky and House of Emmanuele, styled by Tori Knowles. Adorned with more than 7,000 Swarovski crystals and paired with a crystal eclipse centrepiece, the look symbolised rebirth, intensity and emotional power.

The performance also carried added significance, with Vienna famously hosting Australia's Eurovision debut in 2015. Marking the contest's 70th edition, Delta incorporated harp and piano into the performance, grounding the spectacle in artistry and emotion.

Written by Delta Goodrem, Ferras Alqaisi, Jonas Myrin and Michael Fatkin — who also produced the track — Eclipse has continued to resonate with Eurovision audiences across the globe.

Now officially through to the Grand Final, Delta Goodrem is set to Eclipse the world stage once again in a performance that promises to transcend the ordinary and deliver one of Eurovision 2026's defining moments.

Who qualified from Semi-Final 2?

Only 10 artists from the 15 countries in Semi-Final 2 proceed to the Grand Final. The 9 countries joining Delta in the final are: Albania, Bulgaria, Cyprus, Czechia, Denmark, Malta, Romania, Ukraine and Norway.

They join the following countries from Semi-Final 1: Greece, Finland, Moldova, Belgium, Croatia, Israel, Lithuania, Poland, Serbia and Sweden, alongside United Kingdom, France, Italy, Germany and Austria.

LIVE early morning broadcast on SBS and SBS On Demand

Grand Final – Sunday 17 May at 5:00am AEST FEATURES DELTA

Australians need to tune into this broadcast to cast their vote at the same time as European audiences.

Prime-time 'Access All Areas' event coverage on SBS and SBS On Demand

Semi-Final 1 – Friday 15 May at 7:30pm

Semi-Final 2 – Saturday 16 May at 7:30pm FEATURES DELTA

Grand Final – Sunday 17 May at 7:30pm FEATURES DELTA

Drum roll* Australia's Eurovision Spokesperson is... Dami Im!

Who hasn't heard about the famous douze points? The Eurovision Song Contest voting procedure is legendary, but even more legendary is the coveted role of the official spokesperson – a role that will see Eurovision icon Dami Im, deliver the scores on behalf of Australia at this year's song contest.

Dami Im said: "I can't believe it's been 10 years since my Eurovision journey! It's been such a privilege to be part of a passionate and joyful community that has opened so many doors for me as an artist. I'm really excited to return this year in the iconic role of Australia's Eurovision spokesperson and share Australia's points with the world."

Beginning her musical journey as a virtuoso pianist, Dami's illustrious career as a singer-songwriter spans over a decade, marked by a constellation of hit albums. After completing her masters in Contemporary Voice, she became a household name when she won The X-Factor. Since then, her performances have illuminated stages at home and worldwide, from the Sydney Opera House to Asia Songfest K-Pop Festival, Beijing Global Gala to the Byron Bay Bluesfest and her memorable presence at the Eurovision Song Contest where she earned her status as 'Eurovision Royalty' with her song "Sound of Silence" charting in 43 countries and placing second and winning the Marcel Bezençon Award. She has toured with John Legend and in 2023, collaborated with the formidable jazz virtuoso James Morrison.

Images here

About SBS's exclusive coverage

SBS's exclusive coverage of the Eurovision Song Contest promises Australian audiences an unforgettable front-row seat to all the glitter, drama and spectacle direct from Vienna, Austria, with inimitable host Courtney Act and special guest commentator Danny Estrin of Perth prog-metal outfit Voyager, who represented Australia in Liverpool in 2023 and stormed into the top 10 with their euphoric anthem Promise.

Viewers can expect witty commentary, sparkling banter and behind-the-scenes insights that bring every unforgettable moment to life, while joining the conversation during the prime-time event coverage using #SBSEurovision, with tweets and party pictures featured on screen alongside performances, interviews and more.

Where can I watch Delta's Eurovision performance?

If you missed Delta's qualifying performance LIVE on SBS and SBS On Demand this morning, tune into the prime-time broadcast tomorrow night, Saturday 16 May at 7:30pm on SBS and SBS On Demand.

The Grand Final of this year's Eurovision Song Contest is held on Saturday 16 May CEST and is broadcast Sunday 17 May LIVE at 5:00am AEST and in prime time at 7:30pm AEST on SBS and SBS on Demand.

Find out everything you need to know about this year's contest here

Stay tuned to the SBS Eurovision website for updates

#Eurovision2026

Follow SBS on social media: @SBS_Australia and @SBSOnDemand (Instagram) and @sbsondemand (TikTok), @SBSAustralia and @SBSOnDemand (Facebook), @SBS and @SBSOnDemand (X/Twitter).

Follow Delta on social media: @deltagoodrem (Instagram, TikTok and YouTube) and @DeltaGoodremMusic (Facebook).

Follow Courtney Act on social media: @courtneyact (Instagram, TikTok, Facebook and YouTube).

Courtney Act's pronouns are she/her

Follow Danny Estrin on social media: @danny_voyager (Instagram) and @voyagerau (X/Twitter, TikTok, Instagram) and Facebook

Follow Go-Jo on social media: @heyimgojo (Instagram, TikTok and Facebook) and YouTube.

For all media enquiries or interviews with Delta Goodrem, Courtney Act, Danny Estrin, Go-Jo, and Dami Im, please contact: Clementine Zawadzki | +61 432 751 119 | Clementine.Zawadzki@sbs.com.au